A Small Church With A Sincere Heart And A Strong Faith

Jan. 18, 1966

Mr. John Allen Chalk
P. O. Box 574
Cookeville, Tenn., (38501)

Dear John:

How thoughtful of you to write. I am still rejoicing because of the great events that transpired at the "Nashville Retreat". Being associated with great men of faith like yourself and having the opportunity of sitting at your feet for two days was a marvellous experience indeed.

I led the song service for Alan Bryan last night as we officially started a fund raising campaign for Ohio Valley College. He spoke highly of you and of your tremendous ability to proclaim the Christ.

Please accept my thanks for a swell time with you while there in Nashville. I shall never forget it.

Also convey my highest regards to your family. I am praying for your continued success in the Lord's work. I am thinking particularly of the new endeavor with the Herald of Truth. It will entail a lot of hard work but the rewards will be so great.

Until I hear from you again, I remain,

Yours in Him

Ivory James, Jr.
